Historical Note

On the evening of May 10, 1869, several gentlemen met and agreed to issue a call for a more general meeting of those interested in the formation of a local Historical Society. In pursuance of this action a meeting was held on the 13th. It was determined to organize a society: a committee was appointed to draft a Constitution, which was adopted, substantially as presented, in the following June. Application was made to the Commissioners of Dauphin County for a room in the Court House. This request was granted: the Society fitted the room opposite the present City Treasurer's office with the necessary furniture and held all its meetings in it until 1895. Its collections of MSS, books and newspaper files grew so rapidly and were of so much value, that a Charter* of incorporation was applied for, and was granted by the Court, January 21, 1870, to "THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF DAUPHIN COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA". In May, 1895, the large room at the north west corner of the third floor of the Court House Annex was generously fitted up in a handsome and commodious manner by the County Commissioners for the use of the Society, thereby enabling a much better arrangement and display of the valuable collections to be made.

Charter of
The Historical Society of Dauphin County, Pennsylvania

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County:

The Petition of the undersigned respectfully represents that they are citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania associated for literary purposes under the title of The Historical Society of Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, and are desirous to acquire and enjoy the powers and immunities of a corporation or body politic in law, to be situated and have its principal business transacted in the said County of Dauphin, that they have prepared an instrument in writing therein specifying the objects, articles, conditions and name, style and title under which they are associated, and herewith exhibit and present the same to this Court. They therefore pray the Court to examine and peruse said instrument, and, if the objects, articles and conditions therein set forth and contained shall appear lawful, and not injurious to the community, that the Court will make such order with regard to the same as is directed by the Act of Assembly in such cases made and provided, and, if no sufficient reason be shown to the contrary, that the Court will direct and declare that the petitioners shall according to the articles and conditions in said instrument contained and set forth become and be a corporation or body politic in law, and have continuance by the name, style and title therein provided and declared; and they will, etc.

Charter

ARTICLE 1. This Corporation shall be known by the name of The Historical Society of Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, and shall have full power and authority to make, have and use a common seal with such device and inscription as they may deem proper, and the same to break, alter and renew at their pleasure, and by the same style and title aforesaid, shall be able and capable in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any Court, before any Judge, Justice or Justices in all manner of suits, complaints, pleas, causes, matters and demands whatsoever, and all and every matter or thing therein to do in as full and effectual a manner as any other person or persons, bodies politic and corporate within this Commonwealth may or can do, and to make rules, by-laws, and ordinances, and to do everything needful for the good government and support of the affairs of the said Corporation, provided always that the said by-laws, rules and ordinances or any of them be not repugnant to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America or of this Commonwealth, or to this Charter. And the members and their successors shall be able and capable in law to take and receive, hold and enjoy all and all manner of lands, tenements, rents, annuities, franchises and hereditaments and any sum and sums of money and any manner and portion of goods and chattels given or bequeathed to them, to be employed and disposed of according to the objects, articles and conditions hereof or according to the will and intention of the donors, provided always that the clear yearly income of the real and personal estate held by this Corporation shall not at any time exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars.

ARTICLE 2. The object of this Society is to discover, procure and preserve whatever may relate to the natural, civil, literary and ecclesiestical history of the State of Pennsylvania in general, and of the County of Dauphin and of Central Penna. in particular.

ARTICLE 3. The Society shall consist of Resident and Corresponding Members, who may be elected from time to time according to its laws and regulations.

ARTICLE 4. The officers of the Society shall consist of a President, Vice Presidents, Secretaries, a Treasurer and a Librarian, chosen according to its laws and regulations.

ARTICLE 5. The Court reserves the right to alter, revoke or renew the Charter whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of this Commonwealth, in such manner however that no injustice shall be done the Corporation.

And now to wit December , 1869 the above Charter having been presented to the Court, and by it examined and the objects, articles and conditions being found lawful, the Court directs the same to be filed in the Prothonotary's office of Dauphin County, and orders a notice to be inserted in a newspaper published in Harrisburg for at least three weeks setting forth that an application for said Charter had been made and that the same will be granted at the January Term of said Court, unless sufficient cause be shown to the contrary.

JNO. J. PEARSON, Prest. Judge.

Decree of Court

In the Court of Common Pleas for Dauphin County. In the matter of the Incorporation of "The Historical Society of Dauphin County, Pennsylvania."

And now, to wit, January 21st, A. D. 1870, the articles of incorporation heretofore, viz.———1869, filed in the office of the Prothonotary of said Court, and due notice having been inserted in a newspaper printed in said County in due conformity to law: Therefore, on motion of Lyman D. Gilbert, it is declared and decreed that the persons so associated under said articles shall according to the articles and conditions in said instrument set forth and contained become a corporation or body politic in law, and it is further ordered and directed that said Charter of incorporation shall be recorded in the office for recording deeds in and for said County, and on said instrument being so recorded the persons so associated or meaning to associate, shall according to the objects, articles and conditions in said instrument set forth and contained, become and be a corporation or body politic in law and in fact, and to have continuance by the name, style and title in said instrument provided and declared. JNO. J. PEARSON, Prest. Judge.

Revised November 13, 1902

ARTICLE I.

Name.

SEC. 1. This Association shall be called THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF DAUPHIN COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA.

ARTICLE II.

Object.

SEC. 1. The object of this Society shall be to discover, procure, and preserve whatever may relate to the natural, civil, literary and ecclesiastical history of the State of Pennsylvania in general, and of the County of Dauphin and Central Pennsylvania in particular.

ARTICLE III.

Members.

SEC. 1. The Society shall consist of Resident, Corresponding and Honorary Members.

SEC. 2. Any reputable person interested in historical matters, residing in Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, may be elected a Resident Member.

SEC. 3. Any reputable person interested in historical matters, residing outside of Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, and any Society similar in its object to this Society may be elected a Corresponding Member, without the right to vote or to hold office.

SEC. 4. Resident Members removing from Dauphin County shall become Honorary Members, without the right to vote or to hold office; and without the right to receive the publications of the Society, except upon payment of the dues of a Corresponding Member. Other proper persons, may, upon nomination by the Executive Committee, be elected Honorary Members of the Society by a vote of three-fourths of the members present at a regular meeting, but not more than three such members shall be elected in any one year.

SEC. 5. The election of members shall be by ballot, and as follows: The candidate shall be proposed by two members publicly at a meeting of the Society, and the nominations together with the names of the members making them shall be entered on the minutes, and be referred to the Executive Committee. The reports of that Committee recommending candidates for election, shall be openly read to the Society at a stated meeting subsequent to that at which the nominations were made, and five votes cast against any one candidate shall exclude: provided, that six votes in favor shall always be necessary to elect.

SEC. 6. Every new member upon his introduction into the Society, shall be presented by the presiding officer; and shall sign the Constitution of the Society.

SEC. 7. Resignations of membership shall be made to the Executive Committee, and shall not be accepted until all indebtedness to the Society of the member resigning, shall have been discharged.

SEC. 8. On the Society being informed of the death of a member, the fact shall be entered on the records, and the Committee on Biography shall, or some member of the Society shall be appointed to, prepare a necrological notice of the deceased, which shall be read to the Society, and printed (in whole or in part) in the Transactions of the Society.

ARTICLE IV.

Government.

SEC. 1. The officers of the Society shall consist of a President, a First Vice President, a Second Vice President, a Third Vice President, a Corresponding Secretary, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, a Librarian, and an Assistant Librarian.

SEC. 2. These officers shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting on the second Thursday in January, and shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors are chosen.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the President, or, in his absence, one of the Vice Presidents, in their order, to preside at the meetings of the Society; to preserve order; to regulate the debates; and to perform all the duties appertaining to a presiding officer. If neither the President nor any of the Vice Presidents be present at a meeting, the Society may choose a member to act as Chairman at that meeting.

SEC. 4. The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct and have charge of the correspondence of the Society; he shall send out the notices of all meetings, and shall notify all members of their election; and assist the Recording Secretary in the reading of all letters and other documents at the meetings.

SEC. 5. The Recording Secretary shall have charge of the Seal, Charter, By-Laws and Records of the Society; he shall, together with the presiding officer, certify all acts of the Society; and shall keep full and correct minutes of the proceedings of the Society, and shall have the same properly transcribed in a book of record. He shall give notice to the Executive and other Committees of all votes, orders, resolves, and proceedings of the Society affecting them or appertaining to their respective duties.

SEC. 6. The Treasurer shall have charge of the moneys and other funds and securities belonging to the Society. He shall collect the dues of the members, and other income of the Society, and shall pay such claims against the Society as shall have been duly examined, and ordered to be paid by the Society. He shall present at the annual meeting, a statement of his receipts and expenditures during the year ending the 31st day of December preceding, with a full report of the financial condition of the Society, and a committee shall then be appointed to audit his accounts.

SEC. 7. The Librarian shall have charge of the collections, books, manuscripts and other literary property of the Society, and shall arrange and preserve the same in proper and convenient order. He shall keep an arranged catalogue of the books, manuscripts and other donations, with the names of donors. He shall acknowledge the receipt of donations to the Society. At the annual meeting he shall present a report to the Society embracing an account of his administration of the Library and Museum, and of their condition during the preceding year.

SEC. 8. The Assistant Librarian shall assist the Librarian in the performance of his duties.

SEC. 9. All vacancies which may occur in the offices of the Society, whether by death, resignation, removal, or disability, shall be filled by the Executive Committee, to serve until the next election.

SEC. 10. There shall be appointed by the President at the stated meeting subsequent to the annual meeting an Executive Committee, consisting of three Resident Members, whose duty it shall be to solicit and receive donations for the Society; to recommend plans for the promoting its objects; to digest and prepare business; to authorize the disbursement and expenditure of unappropriated moneys in the treasury, for the payment of current expenses, fitting up the Library, the ordinary purchase of books, binding, printing and other necessary outlays, or for investment. They shall have general supervision of the arrangement and regulation of the Library and collections; and shall have authority at any time to examine into the condition of the same, and into the state of the finances; as also to superintend the interests of the Society, and execute all such duties as may from time to time be committed to them by the Society. At each annual meeting they shall make a general report. They shall meet statedly for the transaction of business once at least in every month. At all meetings of the Executive Committee, two members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SEC. 11. There shall be appointed by the President at the stated meeting subsequent to the annual meeting, a Committee on Publication, consisting of five Resident Members, whose duty it shall be to publish from time to time, so far as the amount of funds appropriated by the Society for their use will permit, such extracts from the transactions of the Society and other matter as may to them seem best, or the Society may direct. At each stated meeting they shall present a report of their proceedings, and at the annual meeting a full report. The size of page of the pamphlet publications of the Society must be uniform.

SEC. 12. There shall be appointed by the President, at the stated meeting subsequent to the annual meeting, the following Committees, each consisting of three Resident Members, to serve for one year:

A Committee on Biography;

A Committee on Archæology;

A Committee on the Current History of the State of Pennsylvania in general; and

A Committee on the Current History of the County of Dauphin:

And it shall be the duty of such Committees respectively to keep a full record of everything relating to the particular subject designated by the name of such Committee, such documents to be kept in a book or books furnished by the Society, and to remain in the Library as the property of the Society.

ARTICLE V.

Annual Dues.

SEC. 1. The annual dues of Resident Members shall be three dollars, and of Corresponding Members, two dollars, payable in advance in January.

SEC. 2. Any Resident Member not in arrears, may, by the payment of twenty-five dollars, become a Life Member and exempt from the payment of annual dues.

SEC. 3. Any member liable for annual dues, who neglects to pay the same for two years, shall cease to be a member.

SEC. 4. Newly elected members failing to pay their dues as herein provided, within sixty days after notice of their election has been mailed to them, shall be deemed to have declined membership.

ARTICLE VI.

Meetings.

SEC. 1. The Society shall hold stated meetings on the second Thursday evening of each month, (except in July and August), at 7:30 o'clock.

SEC. 2. The President, or in his absence, one of the Vice Presidents, may, and at the written request of five Resident Members, shall call special meetings of the Society, at least two days' notice being given to the members of the purpose of such special meeting.

SEC. 3. On the second Thursday of May in each year, being the anniversary of the founding of the Society, there shall be delivered an address before the Society by the President, or by some other person to be appointed for that purpose by the Executive Committee.

SEC. 4. Ten Resident Members shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 5. At the stated meetings of the Society, the following shall be the Order of Business :—

1. The reading of the minutes.
2. Names of members present minuted.
3. New members presented, and visitors from other Societies introduced.
4. Communications read.
5. Reports of Committees.

6. Donations to the Society announced.

7. Obituary notices of members read, and announcement of the decease of members made and acted on.

8. Elections.

9. Nomination of new members

10. Deferred Business.

11. Papers read and Addresses delivered before the Society.

12. New Business.

13. Adjournment.

This order of business may be changed at any meeting by a three-fourths vote.

ARTICLE VII.

Amendments.

SEC. 1. No alterations shall be made in these By-Laws, unless the proposed amendment shall have been proposed in writing, and signed by at least three Resident Members and read to the Society at a stated meeting, and carried by a three-fourths vote at the next or some succeeding stated meeting.
